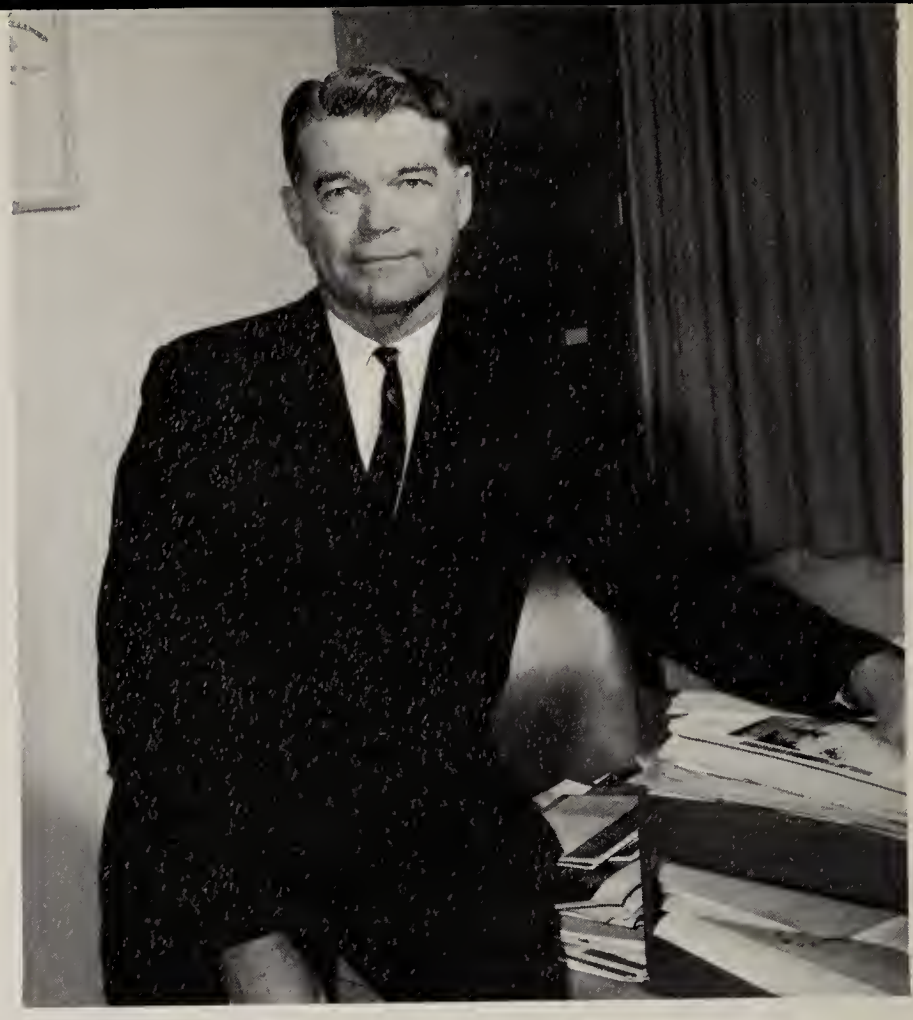
Administration



A message from our Superintendent

Education is the key that unlocks the doorway of tomorrow. It is the key that provides fresh opportunities and challenges for living. As Wauconda students diligently strive to develop their potentialities, their horizons broaden and visions of possible accomplishments greatly expand. The realization then occurs that education is a never ending process.

Richard Warfield

School Board Dist. 118 L. Scott, H. Smith, L. Gamble, President; B. Russell, T. Reilly, K. Sorlie, E. Swanson, G. Miller, Principal; R. Warfield, Superintendent.

From the desk of our Principal

In reflecting back on this school year, I'm sure you will vividly recall the excitement of your personal accomplishments. I'm sure, also, that your accomplishments have strengthened you as a person and further contributed toward the tradition of success at Wauconda High.

Your future and the future of Wauconda High has been greatly enhanced through your successful accomplishments during this 66-67 school year.

Each new year will hold new challenges for each class as well as the graduates. It is my hope that you continue to accept new challenges and learn to realize and enjoy the 'Joy of Accomplishments.'

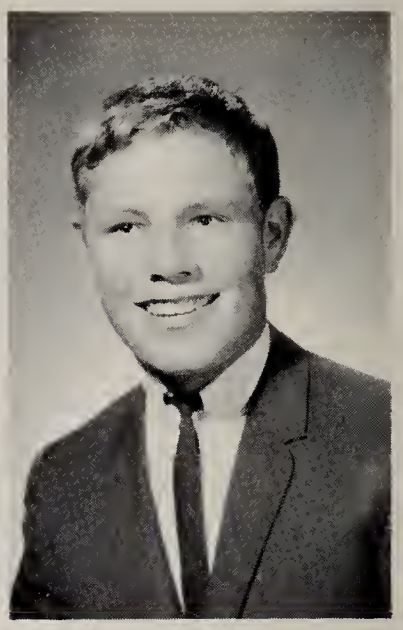
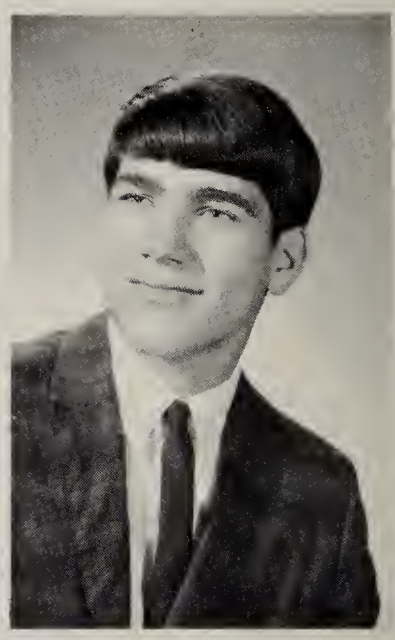
Senior Class

The Senior Class Officers



President
Chuck Holm



Vice President
Steve Serelas

Upon entering Wauconda High, the class of '67 was one of united spirit and great enthusiasm. This great enthusiasm carried over not only into sports, but to academics and extra-curricular activities. We were a class of many "firsts", which would include participation in NBC's "It's Academic". We have been an aggressive class, united in our fight for what we believed to be our rights. We have been well prepared, and the fields we will enter are as varied as the individual personalities that make up our class- the Class of '67. Regret will be familiar to some leaving Wauconda High, others will share a feeling of freedom and the ability to accept new responsibilites, but all will leave with the knowledge that we have left behind us a well designed pattern as a guide line for the classes that will follow to improve and build upon.

W.H.S. presents

The Student Council of Wauconda High School presents the "GREATEST SHOW on EARTH". A three ring attraction beginning with a stunt show on Friday night followed by a pep rally and bonfire. Saturday the parade, a colorful conglomeration of circus floats, brought to the fore'front the true talents of the ART CLUB, first prize winners. The Wauconda Bulldogs did their best to bring home a victory, but alas, fate was against them. The evening brought the bewitching pageantry of the coronation. With a rousing fan-fare her majesty was presented, and the final curtain was rung down on the greatest show on earth.

Achieve a Spirited Second

Under the able coaching of David Falk and Bob Kapheim the sport of muscle and brawn, wrestling, proved almost vicorious for W.H.S.

Wauconda High always does well in this competitive sport, and this year was no exception.

David Sims and Denny Boehmer came on strong, but the mighty Peter Gathman went all the way down state to the finals coming in 6th out of sixteen competitors. Thanks Pete for spreading good-will in the name of Wauconda High School.

In expressing my heart-felt gratitude to those of the Annual Lay-out Staff, I would like to extend a personal thanks to Suzi Blomquist, Roger Christiansen and especially to Annette Hoppler and Mrs. Joy Christensen. Without their assistance this year book would never have been produced. Thank you Mrs. "C" for your enduring patience and your dependable enlightenment when the rest of us were in the depths of darkest despair. Thank you Netty for helping produce what we hope will be the finest yearbook ever to be presented to the students of W.H.S.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of twenty-two members, fifteen of whom are elected by their respective class, and seven who are chosen by the officers and sponsors. Both elective and at-large members have equal voting rights.

Under the guidance of Mr. Michael Flannigan and Miss Sally Martin, the Council strives to fulfill their importance as a governing body, not only at the local level, but also at the district and state levels. Conventions are held at all levels, during which time each Student Council member gains more insight to the importance of the organization, and how the Council can better serve its school and community.

During the year, besides compiling the Student Handbook, the Student Council sponsored the annual Homecoming Events. These included the Friday night Stunt Show, car caravan, bonfire and the Saturday night Homecoming Dance, for students and alumni. Another highlight of the year was the Christmas Dance, which the Council hopes will soon be an established tradition.

Student Council also helps in Civic matters. This year the organization donated money to the refugees of the flood in Florence, Italy, to buy clothing and food to aid homeless families.

A Teen Leadership Conference, sponsored by the Student Council, was held not only for schools in our district, but also surrounding schools. Teens who aspired to be leaders, gained insight into the qualities of leadership. Council felt that this conference succeeded in its aim of giving the teen leaders more knowledge about meeting future tasks.

Lighting of one's candle is a solemn affair to a new member.

To be a member of N.H.S. is an honor and a privilege. One must maintain a high scholastic level, while being a leader both in the school and in the community. These are the students a school looks to for guidance and leadership.

Leadership, scholarship, citizenship and service are symbolized by each of the candles on the table.

To the Annual Layout Staff for being dependable, capable and responsible.
To the Annual Selling Staff for doing such a sensational selling job.
To the faculty for their patience during picture taking stints.
To Mr. Moorhead and his artists for their layout assistance.
To the custodians for always being handy with the keys.
To all those "picture posing hams".
To Joe Schmitt and Walinger for their speedy-service.
To all the students who cared enough to buy a 1967 Annual. It is more rewarding to put out a book when you know others will enjoy it.
Lastly to my peers in the English Department who put up with Deadline Gripes and Blues . . .

I thank you one and all!

JBC.
